

A NOBLE PERSPECTIVE ON THE STRUGGLES OF BEING BLACK WHILE WEARING BLUE

An interactive session for sworn and non-sworn Law Enforcement Personnel

Only 50 spots available per session

Session #3 August 13, 2020 4PM-6PM (PST)

"Where Being Black in Blue Intersects with Reality"

Please join us: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85825079253>

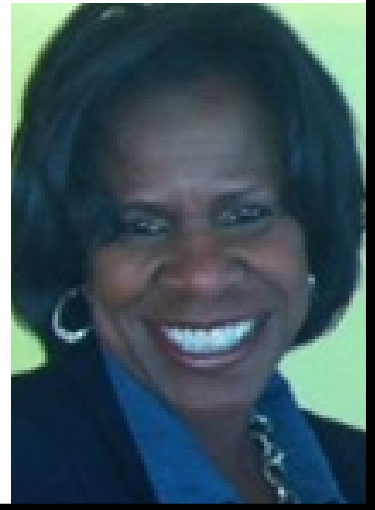

Ronald L. Davis
Former Director of the COPPS
Office, Department of Justice (DOJ).

Op-Ed: My Truth About Being a Black Man and A Black Cop

Carol F. Burton, MSW
Former Interim Director of Alameda County
Behavioral Health Care

Op-Ed: Racism is like 10,000 Paper Cuts

Attendees will learn how to:

- Better navigate agency environments during these challenging times
- Enhance leadership skills and abilities
- Proactively advocate for change
- Use specific tools/methods to distress

San Francisco Bay Area NOBLE Chapter
<http://www.noblesfbayarea.com/>

For more information contact: Anisa McNack , 510-409-9641 or noblewest6@gmail.com